GOD'S WORK

We are so busy! Most of us have more than one job to do, and we never seem to have enough time. We are workers, volunteers, parents, friends, and most of us are more than one thing at a time. But which of these is the work of God?

We seldom view our ordinary work as being the work of God. We may think that we have to be ministers or priests, missionaries or charity workers, engaged full-time in works formally identified as being "God's work." But everything we do with a faithful heart and with love for others is God's work. We each have our own role to fill in the world, and many gifts are necessary. We cannot always see the direct connection of our daily work to the plan of God. But we trust and we believe that God leads us to do what is needed, where it is needed. What is "God's work?" "This is the work of God, that you believe in the one he sent" (John 6:29).

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITIONS

Customs surrounding wedding rites are often in tension with our liturgical tradition. Sometimes practices are almost forced on engaged couples. Anyone who has ever planned a wedding knows how quickly the invoices expand. A hundred dollars here, a hundred there, often for non-essentials, when more deeply traditional practices, like an expression of charity for the poor, fall by the wayside. One such practice often labeled as "deeply traditional" is the aisle runner for the bride. Actually, the American tradition is to clean our church buildings, in contrast to European village churches, which often had dirt or cobblestone floors. There, a band of linen (rented) or a carpet of flowers might be set in place for a bridal party. Here, plastic roll-ups are procured and positioned by the ushers for the bride's entrance. The problems are many, not the least of which is that there is no "bride's entrance" in our official liturgy. Another is that in a wedding Mass, the communicants have to navigate the treacherous aisle with the sometimes-slippery runner. The aisle runner is neither a treasure nor a tradition, and by omitting it, the couple who asks for canned goods for the poor to be brought to church at their wedding Mass will find an extra hundred dollars or so for the cause!

- August 7 —First Friday
Holy Hour will be at 7:00pm
- August 8 —First Saturday
Mass will be at 8:00am

SOCIAL JUSTICE

Really, Planned Parenthood?

When it seems the destruction of unborn children cannot get any worse, we only need to read the newspapers, or watch the news on our televisions, or follow it on our computers or cell phones, to see what is happening.

“When people are confronted with the brutal reality of Planned Parenthood ‘crushing’ pre-born children’s limbs in order to keep the most valuable parts intact for sale, the political-speak of ‘choice’ and ‘reproductive freedom’ don’t stand a chance.” (Quote from the president of “Live Action”) Our faith tells us that life is sacred from conception until natural death. What do you think about our tax money going to fund Planned Parenthood?

Water Appreciated

Members of the Social Justice Ministry continue to bring bottled water to homeless men and women. To all who have donated the water, or who have made a monetary donation for us to purchase the water, we say “Thank you.” We will continue to give out the water through the summer months. Containers are in the entryways of the church. If you would like to make a monetary donation, please put it in an envelope marked “SJM for water” and bring it to the parish office or put it in the collection basket during Mass. Questions? Contact the parish office during office hours (916) 381-5200 or Maria Reyes’ cell phone (408) 250-7442.

Pope Francis: Care of the Environment

Pope Francis’ encyclical, Laudato Si, on environment and climate change may be the first of its kind, but the ideas expressed within it flow from the deep well of Catholic teaching about ecology. As Catholics, we put love at the center of our faith. Love for God’s people, and especially for the most vulnerable of our sisters and brothers, is at the core of our Catholic teaching on the environment. We are called to live justly on God’s earth.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION CENTER

We have made steady progress in repaying our Diocesan Loan that we borrowed to complete the construction of our Religious Education Center.

We began this year with a balance due of $1,044,453.13. We have not yet received the 4th quarter interest charges on the loan, but it will be approximately $8,000. Through your pledges and "Pink Envelopes" contributions we have paid and reduced the loan to approximately $934,981.00.

Most parishioners have completed their pledge commitment and have continued to contribute through the pink envelopes. Thank you for using your treasure to insure that our young people receive a first class education in our faith. We have a ways to go, but you, the Parish family, have shown that our task is achievable.

Decimooctavo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario 2 agosto 2015

EL TRABAJO QUE DIOS QUIERE

¡Estamos tan ocupados! Muchos de nosotros tenemos más de un trabajo y parecería que nunca tenemos suficiente tiempo. Somos trabajadores, voluntarios, padres, amigos y la mayoría es más de una cosa a la vez. Pero, ¿cuál de estos es el trabajo que Dios quiere?

Rara vez vemos nuestro trabajo común como el trabajo que Dios quiere. Quizás pensamos que debemos ser ministros o sacerdotes, misioneros o benefactores, que debemos realizar trabajos de tiempo completo que se consideran como "las obras de Dios". Pero todo lo que hacemos con un corazón fiel y con amor por el prójimo es una obra de Dios. Cada uno tiene un papel que cumplir en el mundo y muchos dones son necesarios. No siempre podemos ver la relación directa que existe entre nuestro trabajo diario y los designios de Dios. Pero confiamos y tenemos fe en que Dios nos guía a hacer lo que es necesario, cuando es necesario. ¿Cuál es "la obra de Dios?" "La obra de Dios consiste en que crean en aquél a quien él ha enviado" (Juan 6:29).

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

.En Juan 6:26 Jesús es muy directo con las personas que lo buscan: "En verdad, en verdad les digo: ustedes me buscan, no por las señales que han visto, sino porque han comido de los panes y se han saciado". Los está llamando "interesados", no amigos. Hay muchas ocasiones en las que actuamos como esas personas a las cuales Jesús llama la atención. No buscamos a Jesús porque es "pan de vida", sino porque queremos que nos dé algo. Deseamos que nos ayude, que nos sirva, que nos complazca.

Muchos cristianos dicen que si vamos a Jesús él nos hará ricos, nos tendrá siempre en salud, nos ayudará a ganar la lotería, etcétera. Hablan como si Jesús nos hubiera prometido una vida fácil y sin complicaciones. Los evangelios dicen lo contrario, la vida cristiana es difícil. Jesús no es un cajero automático que visitamos sólo cuando necesitamos algo de él. No podemos tener relación íntima con una máquina. Lo que Jesús nos ofrece es una relación de amistad, de entrega, de amor, pero no de interés.

EL LLAMADO

Hola Amigos y Amigas en Cristo, Espero que todos se encuentren bien. Por favor mantengan en oración todas las personas que se han afectado por las lumbres que hay en nuestras tierras tan secas. Vamos a pedirle a Dios por la lluvia que necesitamos. Me puedes preguntar: "Padre, cómo puedo ser sabio?" Aquí hay otro reto: el reto de amar. Cuál es la lección más importante que tienes que aprender en la vida? Es el aprender como amar. Este es el reto que la vida te propone hoy mismo. Aprende a amar. No solo acumular información. Nos llega un momento cuando no se sabe lo que tenemos que hacer con toda esa información, se convierte en una bodega. Solo, si por amor, toda esta información puede traer fruto. Para poder lograr esto, el evangelio nos propone una cosa serena y tranquila. Esta cosa es de usar los tres idiomas: el idioma de la mente, el idioma del corazón, y el idioma de las manos. Las tres juntas, armoniosamente: lo que piensas, que sientes y haces. Tu información desciende al corazón, lo conmueve, y se traduce en acción. Y todo esto, en una manera armoniosa: Yo pienso lo que siento y lo que hago, Yo siento lo que pienso y lo que hago, y Yo hago lo que pienso y lo que siento.
