Twenty-sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The law of the Lord is perfect, refreshing the soul, the decree of the Lord is trustworthy, giving wisdom to the simple.
Psalm 19:8

OUR PRODIGAL GOD

We keep having to relearn how prodigal God is. It is as if God cannot quite manage to say no. We think it is surely fine when God is prodigal with us—rich in mercy and forgiveness, generous in grace. But what about the other—the enemy, the sinner, the heretic, the outsider? Well, we expect God to be as stingy with that person as we are.

Moses and Joshua wanted such a cozy world, too. They wondered how the spirit of God could be given to the two who did not show up at the meeting tent—today's church. And the apostles in the Gospel complained because there were some miracle workers who were clearly not followers of Jesus. God's great free-wheeling generosity confounded them all. Let this be, says Jesus. Just see to it that you who lead continue to be worthy of your calling.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITIONS

At first glance, the situation of the penitents in the early church is shocking: isolated and labeled, their journey back to fellowship at the Lord's table seems arduous and even cruel. However, at no time in the process were the penitents lacking the support of the community. Penances were performed for all to see, and we can tell from the homilies of the day that people earnestly desired to see the sinner benefit from the remedy. Tertullian reminded the penitents that they were living among their brothers and sisters, fellow servants of the same Lord, still in the embrace of the Spirit. He tells them that when they extend their hands in blessing to the faithful, it is Christ they touch. He tells them that when they see tears in the eyes of believers, it is Christ who is interceding for them with the Father.

There is a treasure of our tradition woven into this history: these people knew profoundly that the prayer of Christ's body, the church, was the prayer of Christ himself. Prayer was not merely support for a person down on his or her luck; it was effective and necessary. The treasure we can see even through the tangles of history is this: the Spirit of God is poured out on the church, and brings grace, forgives sin, makes us holy, and always calls us to fullness of life.

THE PRESENCE OF GOD

In all our thoughts and actions we ought to remember the presence of God, and account lost in which we think not of God.

—St. Bernard of Clairvaux

SOCIAL JUSTICE

What About the Shoes?

In late June this year our Social Justice Ministry had a Bake Sale to raise money to buy shoes for school children in our area who are in need. We appreciate all whom supported us. To date 55 pairs of shoes have been purchased. As a member of our S.J.M. is contacted by the School District about children needing shoes, she will continue to purchase them.

We thank this member of our ministry for her diligence in going shopping and buying the shoes. Our thanks go also to a member of our parish (he knows who he is) for obtaining a $500 grant from Wal-Mart for shoes for needy children.

A Quote from Pope Francis

“As long as the problems of the poor are not radically resolved by rejecting the absolute autonomy of markets and financial speculation and by attacking the structural causes of inequality, no solution will be found for the world’s problems, or, for that matter, to any problems.”

If you are interested in our parish’s Social Justice Ministry contact Lorraine (916) 363-0365.

Cold Weather Coming,

Some advance information: On a Sunday in early November the Social Justice Ministry will have a coat give-away after Mass. Watch the bulletin for dates. All are welcome to take the free coats for themselves or for their children.

FESTIVAL NEWS!

Last Sunday we gathered as a Parish Family to celebrate our 43rd Annual Fall Festival. Hopefully you were able to attend and experience our wonderful fun filled festival. If you attended you know that we had a new venue for our Festival this year. The metal booths were replaced by large pop up canopies. The canopies were donated by one of our Parishioners and were a great new change to our physical appearance. The new shade covers were ideal for allowing us to expand our available space and use the area designated for our future Administration Center. This venue provided more room for events and ease of maneuvering to all of our various booths. Once again the hard work of our St. Joseph Ministry ensured that the canopies, stage and eating areas were ready for the Festival. The number of people attending the Festival made it too hard to estimate the attendance. But, if you were there you knew there were a lot of people.

We tried a new look for Fun Land this year. It was colorful and almost made you feel that you were at a carnival. The majority of our Fun Land volunteers were from our Spanish CFF students and their parents. They did an exceptional job assuring a smooth operation of the many games that were available. An additional treat for the young people, this year, were the pony rides.

Adults and young people enjoyed a variety of entertainment. The entertainers included: Mother Earth & Fairy Dancing, Fan Dancing, The Chiguina Family, The Simply Magic Band, the Wedding Singers, Ramiro Mendoza - Pianist and the Cali-Hispanic Dancers. At 3:00 the Dancing Horses performed in a corral set up on the west side of the Religious Education Center. Wow! It is hard to believe that the riders and horses can make the dancing of the animals look so natural.

The weather was a little on the warm side, however all enjoyed the day and stayed hydrated with all the various beverages, soda, Alhambra or Nestlé's water, iced tea, lemonade and flavored water, which were offered. The artificial shade and umbrellas on the picnic tables in the center of the food court provided some relief from the sun. This year some activities were located inside the hall. The area set aside for "Theme Baskets" allowed all to peruse the baskets and decide which baskets they would like to win, and deposit their ticket accordingly. The Catholic Daughters "Sweet Shop" provided all kinds of goodies to enjoy and had an additional treat of ice cream in the cone or bowl, a welcome cool relief. Bingo allowed tired participants the ability to relax and try to be the first one to call "Bingo." A new addition this year was a photo booth which provided various props to be used in the picture or allowed a memory picture of attending the festival.

The food booths once again provided a wonderful variety of food from our multi-cultural parish. We were able to choose from Vietnamese, Mexican, a Taco Cart, Filipino, a TRI-Tip sandwich from the Knights of Columbus, or select an All American hot dog or hamburger. Some parishioners were finding the choice a difficult one so decided to sample all that was offered. We had vegetables and plants from "Charlotte's Garden." And the booth that makes our Festival special, "The Religious Goods Store Booth," gave us a wide selection of religious articles to choose from. What a fun day for our parish.

FESTIVAL contd....

Several vendors attended the Festival this year represented were: Herberger's Funeral chapel, Save-Mart Super Market, BionWater, The Children's Smile Center, and Cindy's Bling. In addition Cristol Rey High School, and the Catholic Spanish Radio were represented.

For all the St. Joseph Ministry volunteers who worked long hours setting up the Festival, and yes, also to take it down, we thank you. For the parking lot team that ensured we were safe in our parking areas, and all who worked so hard to provide food and drink, that has become a tradition, thank you! The Fun Land workers, together with the many volunteers who contributed to the success of our Festival, THANK YOU!

Finally, THANK YOU, to all parishioners who came, participated and enjoyed being a parish family.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION CENTER

SUPER RAFFLE WINNER

The winner of the Super Raffle prize of $1,000 was CATALINA UBUNGEN! Congratulation! The final results for the Festival are not yet in, but we know enough to say that Ms. Ubungen was not the only winner. Sufficient funds were taken in to assure that $5,000 will be available to help repay the Diocesan Loan for the Religious Education Center. CONGRATULATIONS AND THANK YOU to all the parishioners who contributed to the Super Raffle!

Vigésimo Sexto Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario 27 de septiembre 2015

NUESTRO DIOS PRÓDIGO

Nos toca volver a aprender una y otra vez cuán pródigo es nuestro Dios. Es como si Dios no pudiera decir “no”. Por supuesto, que estamos de acuerdo cuando Dios es pródigo conmigo—rico en misericordia y perdón, generoso con su gracia. Pero cuando se trata del otro —¿el enemigo, el pecador, el hereje, el excluido? Pues entonces queremos que Dios sea tan tacaño con esa persona como yo soy.

Moisés y Josué también querían un mundo así de conveniente. Se preguntaban cómo es que el espíritu de Dios se había posado sobre los dos que no se aparecieron a la reunión —la Iglesia de hoy. Y los apóstoles en el Evangelio se quejaron porque habían unos haciendo milagros que en definitiva no eran seguidores de Jesús. La extensa y libre generosidad de Dios los confundió a todos. Que así sea, dice Jesús. Por su parte, ustedes que guían a otros, continúen siendo dignos de su vocación.

LECTURAS DE HOY

Primera lectura — El espíritu se posó sobre Moisés y los ancianos, y también sobre Eldad y Medad. No se puede limitar al espíritu (Números 11:25-29).

Salmo — Los mandamientos del Señor alegran el corazón (Salmo 19 [18]).

Segunda lectura — Ustedes que se han hecho ricos rehusando pagar los salarios y con otras obras injustas, ahora se les va a condenar (Santiago 5:1-6).

Evangelio — Cualquiera que esté haciendo el bien en nombre de Cristo está con él. Aleja de ti todo lo que te impida el desarrollo espiritual (Marcos 9:38-43, 45, 47-48).

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

Jesús dice a sus discípulos: “Les aseguro que no quedará sin recompensa el que les dé de beber un vaso de agua por el hecho de que ustedes pertenecen a Cristo” (Marcos 9:41). De esta manera Jesús muestra ser un buen judío. Existe una vieja tradición hebrea que relata que Dios premia no sólo a sus santos, los profetas, sino también a los discípulos del santo, y a quienes ayudan y alimentan a los profetas o sus discípulos. Así mismo, Dios abre las puertas de su generosidad con los santos y quienes de una manera u otra están relacionados con dicho profeta.

Nuestro Dios es un Dios generoso, por tal motivo, ama a quien da con alegría. Los cristianos somos receptores de la generosidad del Dios de Israel, ya que éste no nos negó a su propio Hijo. Desde el principio del cristianismo la generosidad de tiempo, talento y dinero han sido la señal palpable de nuestro amor fraterno. Jesús promete que esta generosidad será premiada en esta vida y en la vida eterna. Seamos generosos.

ESTRELLA DE LA NUEVA EVANGELIZACION

A la Madre del Evangelio viviente le pedimos que interceda para que esa invitación a una nueva etapa evangelizadora sea acogida por toda la comunidad eclesial. Ella es la mujer de fe, que vive y camina en la fe y “su excepcional peregrinación de la fe representa un punto de referencia constante para la Iglesia”. Ella se dejó conducir por el Espíritu, en un itinerario de fe, hacia un destino de servicio y fecundidad. Nosotros hoy fijamos en ella la mirada, para que nos ayude a anunciar a todos el mensaje de salvación, y para que los nuevos discípulos se conviertan en agentes evangelizadores. En esta peregrinación evangelizadora no faltan las etapas de aridez, ocultamiento, y hasta cierta fatiga, como la que vivió María en los años de Nazaret, mientras Jesús crecía. Este es el comienzo del Evangelio, o sea de la buena y agradable nueva. No es difícil, pues notar en este inicio una particular fatiga del corazón, unida a una especie de “noche de fe” Usando una expresión de Juan de la Cruz.— como u velo a través del cual hay un acercamiento invisible y vivir en intimidad con el misterio. Pues de este modo María por muchos años vive el misterio en la intimidad con su Hijo

MINISTERIO DE DUELO

Nuestra parroquia tiene un ministerio activo que trabaja con las familias de los miembros de la parroquia que fallecen para que la pérdida de su ser querido sea menos es-tresante posible. La pérdida de un miembro de la familia es traumático, y está rodeado de la confusión de la planificación para la disposición de la persona amada.

El Ministerio duelo sirve a la familia asistiendo a vigili-as y celebración de misas de la Vida. Además, la parroquia ofrece el salón parroquial para recepciones después de los entierros. El uso de la sala ofrece un lugar y tiempo para los familiares y amigos recuerden y celebren la vida de su ser querido. Miembros voluntarios de la parroquia proporcionan alimento para la recepción. La comida donada es generalmente una ensalada, o un postre.

Tener un tiempo para que miembros de la familia se reúnan y recuerden a su ser querido ayudando a superar el dolor asociado con la pérdida. La prestación de alimentos por los miembros de la parroquia por lo general se produce una vez o dos veces al mes. Las donaciones son realmente apreciados por las familias.

Si usted desea unirse a la Consejería de Duelo y donar alimentos para recepciones por favor llame Clara Heimericks al (916) 689-3932.
