NO SURPRISES

We are told by all spiritual writers that one important point to bear in mind, as we seek to attain humility, is not to be surprised by our own faults and failures.

HUMILITY

Have you ever been in a group of people—maybe on a tour, at a social gathering, or at church—and discovered that you have just been talking with a well-known author, corporate CEO, great scholar, or politician? Your first thought is the hope that you didn't say anything to embarrass yourself; but your second thought is how much they seemed like such "regular" folks. What is it that makes people seem so "regular"? Today's readings give us a clue when they stress the importance of humility.

It is so hard for us not to tell the first person who will listen how busy we are, how hard we work, how much money we donate, and how important our job titles are. We think these accolades make a difference to people, and if we don't tell them, how will they ever know? But if our actions demonstrate our values, people will recognize our worth on their own. The words of Jesus show us how much better it is to let someone else recognize our worth than to be embarrassed because someone did not.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITIONS

Perhaps the most familiar traditional symbol that identifies bishops is the crozier that they carry. We see the shepherd's staff and immediately rich images from scripture come to mind, as well as the recollection that the first to respond to Christ's presence in our world were the shepherds. The staff is more than a walking stick; its crooked top is useful in snaring errant sheep but also in keeping the flock united. Bishops carry the curve outward, indicating their ministry to the wider flock, while abbots (and some abbesses, too) carry the crozier with the curve pointing in, indicating that their ministry is to the monastery alone.

The crozier was once also carried by the pope, but was phased out centuries ago. You may recall that in pre-"popemobile" days, the pope was often carried around on a portable throne called a sedes gestatoria. Since he didn't do much walking, the need for a crozier was minimal. Pope Paul VI introduced the innovation of a walking staff in the 1960s, and everyone remembers Pope John Paul II's walking staff, not a crook, but a delicately sculptured crucifix. Thus, the pope carries a "pastoral staff" rather than a crozier. Precisely because the pope's ministry is universal, to the whole world, popes will likely leave croziers in the hands of the bishops they commission for care of specific flocks.

HEALTH MINISTRY

Free Blood Pressure Screening Clinic Sunday, Sept. 4th 8:30am-12:30pm

These screenings are presented to the community to increase awareness and knowledge of prevention, detection and management of High blood pressure and are provided free by your Health Ministry Team. High blood pressure is often called "the silent killer" since it is possible to have the condition without any symptoms and left untreated can cause serious problems.

What is high blood pressure and why is it important to you?

High blood pressure is a common condition and is determined by the amount of blood your heart pumps and the amount of resistance to blood flow in your arteries. The more blood your heart pumps and the narrower your arteries, the higher your blood pressure. You can have high blood pressure for years without any symptoms. Uncontrolled this increases your risk of serious health problems, including heart attack and stroke.. Fortunately, high blood pressure can be easily detected. And once you are aware of it you can work with your doctor to control it. Come to our free screening and let the nurses help you monitor and control your blood pressure.

Free Flu Shots

The St. Paul Health Ministry is negotiating with Walgreen's Drugs to provide flu shots for qualified parishioners this year. Vigésimo Segundo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

HUMILDAD

¿Has estado alguna vez con un grupo de personas – quizás en un crucero, en una reunión social, o en la iglesia– y descubres que has estado hablando con un autor muy conocido, un alto ejecutivo de una empresa poderosa, un gran intelectual o una figura política? Tu primer pensamiento es que ojalá no hayas dicho nada embarazoso, pero el segundo es tu asombro al notar que se comporten como una persona “normal”. ¿Qué es lo que hace a una persona “normal”? Las lecturas de hoy nos dan una pista cuando ponen de relieve la importancia de la humildad.

Es tan difícil no decirle a la primera persona que nos escuche lo ocupados que estamos, lo mucho que trabajamos, cuánto dinero donamos y cuán importantes son nuestros títulos en el trabajo. Pensamos que estas distinciones tienen influencia en las personas, y si no se lo decimos, ¿cómo van a saberlo? Pero si nuestras acciones demuestran nuestros valores, la gente reconocerá lo que valemos, por sí solas. Las palabras de Jesús nos muestran que es mucho mejor dejar que los demás reconozcan nuestros méritos que apenarnos porque alguien no los reconoce.

LECTURAS DE HOY

Primera lectura — Maneja tus asuntos con humildad. Humíllate y tendrás el favor de Dios (Sirácide 3:17-18, 20, 28-29).

Salmo — Dios da libertad y riqueza a los cautivos (Salmo 68 [67]).

Segunda lectura — Te has acercado a Jesús, el mediador de una nueva alianza (Hebreos 12:18-19, 22-24a).

Evangelio — Cuando te inviten a comer, siéntate en el lugar menos importante. Los que se humillan serán ensalzados (Lucas 14:1, 7-14).

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

Por esta época recordamos la natividad de María, madre de Jesús. María es muy popular entre muchos pueblos y en especial en los pueblos latinos. Al principio del mes de septiembre dos naciones toman la fiesta de su nacimiento para recordarla bajo el título de la Virgen de la Caridad del Cobre en Cuba y de Nuestra Señora de Coromoto en Venezuela.

La Virgen del Cobre fue descubierta en el siglo XVI por dos indígenas y un niño africano llamados los tres Juanes, cuando estos fueron al mar en busca de sal. Después de una fuerte tempestad ellos encontraron flotando sobre las olas una pequeña imagen de María con el Niño Dios en brazos. La imagen flotaba sobre una tabla que decía yo soy la Virgen de la Caridad. Milagrosamente la imagen estaba seca.

También en el siglo XVI la Virgen se le apareció al cacique de los indígenas Coromoto en Venezuela. Estos resistían la evangelización y ella se apareció sobre las aguas invitándolos al bautizo cristiano.

Estas dos manifestaciones marianas llevan a Jesús en brazos recordándonos que María nada puede sin Cristo.

EL ALTAR

Si bien el altar tiene una importancia peculiar a lo largo de todo el Año litúrgico como centro sacramental de la Iglesia y lugar de sacrificio de Cristo y del banquete eucarístico, en este Año Santo adquiere una luz particular. El altar, en efecto, se convierte en el centro de convergencia no solo de la sacramentalidad de la Iglesia, sino también de la infinita misericordia del Padre que se manifiesta en múltiples aspectos y que en el sacrificio del Hijo encuentra la síntesis perfecta y salvífica.

Por este motivo, se debe tener gran cuidado de todos los lugares litúrgicos, pero el altar adquiere una importancia eminente con respecto a los otros. Por tanto, se ha de prestar especial atención para que, en su ornamento sobrio (flores, mantel, cirios, etc.), se manifieste el gran misterio que se celebra en él y al cual remite también el crucifijo, único, que debe estar ubicado cerca al altar y en relación con él. Se ha de infundir en todos los fieles un gran respeto frente a este lugar, evitando recubrirlo o poner sobre él objetos o adornos ajenos a él. Téngase, además, en cuenta que el altar no es lugar desde el cual se preside la asamblea o se proclaman las lecturas, funciones para las cuales existen lugares bien precisos como la sede y el ambón, sino que es el lugar de la Liturgia eucarística y de la anáfora. Por tanto, no ha de ser lugar “perennemente habitado” por la presencia del presbítero o de los demás ministros. En efecto, mediante los movimientos procesionales de un lugar litúrgico a otro se expresa la función mistagógica de la liturgia de la iniciación del pueblo de Dios en los misterios de la fe a través de signos
