St. Paul Families in Christ Jesus Ministry

Our Mission

We are families in Christ Jesus Community (FCIC). We belong to a movement which believes in the urgent need to respond to God's call to proclaim and defend his Gospel on the family. (Gen. 1:24 and Gen. 2:24)

Who We Are

As members of St. Paul Parish, we are committed to bringing others to experience personal renewal, family renewal and church renewal through a Christian community that is Catholic, charismatic, evangelistic and family-life oriented.

What We Do

We, the Families in Christ Jesus Ministry of St. Paul Catholic Church:

- Provide catholic Christian formation through programs, retreats, recollections and prayer gatherings.
- Form and develop families into strong domestic churches within the parish.
- Develop and strengthen the relationship and service of parishioners with the pastor by encouraging them to be available for other parish ministry and service, sharing their time, treasure and talent.
- Fulfill the proclamation of the Gospel of Jesus Christ by sharing, by propagating and by living out the Gospel among St. Paul parishioners and families.
