TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — I saw water flowing out of the temple; wherever the river flows, every living creature shall live (Ezekiel 47:1-2, 8-9, 12).

Psalm — The waters of the river gladden the city of God, the holy dwelling of the Most High (Psalm 46).

Second Reading — Do you not know that you are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwells in you? (1 Corinthians 3:9c-11, 16-17).

Gospel — Destroy this temple and in three days I will raise it up (John 2:13-22).

November 9, 2014 The Dedication of the Lateran Basilica

The Lord of hosts is with us; our stronghold in the God of Jacob.
-Psalm 46:8

THE TEMPLE AND WORSHIP

In all of today's readings, the temple is prominently mentioned. Ezekiel speaks of streams of living water flowing out from the temple, watering the desert, bringing life to all living things, offering fresh healing to God's people.

Paul reminds the Corinthians that their faith rests upon the firmest of foundations, Christ himself. More than that, Paul reveals that those who follow Christ are themselves temples, temples of the Holy Spirit; that is, God dwells not only with them, but in them.

For the Jews of Jesus' time, the temple had come to be identified with the presence of God and the only place where authentic worship of God took place. Jesus had a different perception. Jesus identified himself not with the temple, but as the temple. In so doing, Jesus indicated a dramatic shift in what it means to worship God, to be in God's presence. No longer was a place to be the focus of prayer. Instead, a person, the person of Jesus Christ, becomes the center of our worship.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

For several weeks, we have considered penance as a sacrament of forgiveness, and yet there are two other sacraments in this category. The first, of course, is the Eucharist itself. The other is the sacrament of the sick, long associated with penance.

The Letter of James sets out the deep tradition for caring for the sick: sending for the priests, who will pray and lay their hands on the sick ones, anointing them with oil, and giving them forgiveness. Long before other rites of penance developed, the sacrament of the sick was therefore a profound experience of forgiveness. Jesus often healed the sick, nearly always as a visible sign of forgiveness of sin. The tradition didn't unfold smoothly, however, and within a few centuries the oil of the sick was taken home to be applied by caregivers as a salve, or even to be drunk as a medicine. As early as the second century, bishops were therefore urging that priests should be the ones to visit those separated by illness from the Sunday assembly. Thus the practice of consigning the Eucharist and the oil of the sick to the non-ordained faithful to bring home was relatively short-lived.

EVANGELIZATION

I will go anywhere and do anything in order to communicate the love of Jesus to those who do not know him or have forgotten him.

—St. Frances Xavier Cabrini

SOCIAL JUSTICE

Social Justice Ministry

This month the Social Justice Ministry is making plans to assist the Knights of Columbus with the Thanksgiving Baskets and to prepare the Jesse Giving Tree with the names of the parish children who are from low-income families. This ministry meets once a month during the daytime. If you are interested in joining this ministry contact Lorraine (916) 363-0365 or lelratray@attnet.

A Reminder

November 13 is the last day to give the CFF coordinators (Aracely, Consuelo or Sister Kathy) the needed information and names of your children for the Jesse Giving Tree. Only low-income, parish registered families are invited to participate in this Jesse Giving Tree, for children ages 0-14.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

There are bins in the vestibule of the church to collect non perishable food items for families in need during the Thanksgiving season. The Knights of Columbus will be giving out 250 food baskets again this year and we hope these baskets will contain enough food for a family to enjoy a full Thanksgiving Dinner and more. Please go through your cupboards and pantries and donate any items that you can. Please remember the less fortunate when you are doing your grocery shopping.

Mark your calendars now for the St. Paul Men's Retreat at Christ the King Retreat Center, in Citrus Hts. This year the retreat will be on November 14-16th. Please contact Jerry Fong at 689-9418 or Norv Latreille at 363-0365 if you have any questions, or would like to register for the retreat.

If you would like to find out more about becoming a Knight please ask any Knight, they should all be wearing their name badges, or call Phil De Leon at (916) 607-1645.

CATHOLIC TV

The Catholic TV Network, America's Catholic Television, is now available to cable and satellite providers in our area. You are invited to help provide this upbeat, and exciting Catholic network, and a powerful resource to the people of our area.

To help simply visit GetCatholicTV.com as an easy way to petition your cable or satellite provider. If you are unable to access the internet please follow up with a post-card or letter to your provider.

SICK PARISHIONERS & FRIENDS

Pray for sick family members, friends and parishioners.

MASS OF REMEMBRANCE

The Bereavement Ministry invites you to participate in the annual "Mass of Remembrance" ceremony to be held on November 10th, Monday, at 7:00pm as we pay homage and respect to those of our parish community who have left this earthly life during the past year. We ask the entire faith community of St. Paul Parish to join together on this important day of prayer and remembrance. For additional information please call Clara Heimericks at (916)- 689-3932.

URBAN FIRE SAFETY

Due to the potential of devastating loss due to fires The Catholic Mutual offers a few helpful suggestions:
 Keep all roofs, eaves and gutters free of debris.
 Remove dead vegetation from around buildings and grounds.
 If you have firewood, move the stacks of wood away from the building.
 Try to plant fire resistant plants & shrubs.
 Trim trees and shrubs.

CATHOLIC DAUGHTERS

The Catholic Daughters of Americas will be Selling tamales the weekend of November 15/16 after all Masses. We will be selling both Vegetarian and Pork Tamales. The Court has Lost a new tan cash box, keys still in packet that was used at the Festival Sweet Shop. Does anyone know of its whereabouts? Please contact Nellie Basque at 916 381-1365.

LOAVES AND FISHES

St. Paul 2nd Luau Fundraiser

“Mahalo Nui Loa” -Thank you for a successful and fellowship evening. The proceeds are earmarked for our operating expenses, or general fund, for utilities, grounds and maintenance needs.

We were entertained by David Chiguina & Family and the Lure of the Pacific Band & Authentic Polynesian Dance Troupe who depicted authentic culture in song and dance.

The meal was “ono” delicious thanks to the catering of L & L Hawaiian BBQ. We sold tickets for an Ipad and had a silent auction. We had 31 great prizes to bid on and were very successful.

On behalf of Fr. Joyle, Co-chairman Norv Latreille, myself and your Financial/Pastoral council members—thank you! Thank you also to the ministry leaders, all our fabulous volunteers, our food servers, clean up crew, decorators and bakers. “We are many parts, we are all one body” as we as a parish community come together for our needs.....

God bless and aloha, Kit, Nathan & Dale

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION CENTER INPUT

The St. Paul Meditation Area provides the parish with a quiet place where parishioners are able to sit, pray, meditate give thanks, or petition for those things they hold close in their hearts. The pavers in the Meditation area reflect many of those things that parishioners, who have placed them there, hold dear.

Since the first pavers were placed in August of 2013, 45 parishioners have placed pavers around the monument. The pavers provide a visual reminder of family, friends, or thankfulness of gifts that God has provided. The funds received from the pavers have gone directly to help reduce the debt incurred in the building of the Religious Education Center.

If you have not taken a moment to visit the Meditation Area you should. Stopping our hectic lives for just a few moments to thank God for all have received is very refreshing.

ALL SOULS ENVELOPES

All Souls Envelopes are available in the entranceway of the church. If you would like to have a deceased loved on remembered in the Masses, please take an envelope and return it with the names listed on the envelope. All the envelopes will remain on the altar during the month of November.

DAY OF RECOLLECTION FOR MINISTERS

Day of Reflection of Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion at Christ the King Retreat Center on Friday, November 14 8:30am to 3:30pm. All ministers are invited. Attendees will be guided to learn from the Saints how the Eucharist has shaped their spiritual life.

Share Christ’s expanding love in our own lives. Respond to the Church’s call for a New Evangelization. Dedicate oneself to live out pastoral initiatives of the Church in the world today.

HEALTH MINISTRY

It’s Flu Season again! The Health Ministry reminds you that each year 5% to 20% of the US population gets the flu, more than 200,000 people are hospitalized and about 3,000 die. Get a flu shot! Wash your hands frequently! Disinfect frequently used surfaces. Stay home if you are sick.

PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY

Please pray for the following members of our families serving in the Armed Forces.

Dedicación de la Basílica de san Juan de Letrán 9 de noviembre de 2014

EL TEMPLO Y LA ADORACIÓN

En todas las lecturas de hoy, el Templo es mencionado predominantemente. Ezequiel habla de aguas vivas que fluyen del Templo, regando el desierto, trayendo vida a todas las cosas vivientes, brindando salud y frescor al pueblo de Dios.

Pablo recuerda a los corintios que su fe reposa sobre bases firmes, Cristo mismo. Más que eso, Pablo les revela que quienes siguen a Cristo son templos ellos mismos, templos del Espíritu Santo, es decir, que Dios no solamente habita con ellos, sino dentro de ellos.

Para los judíos de los tiempos de Jesús, el Templo era identificado con la presencia de Dios y como el lugar santo en donde la verdadera adoración a Dios tenía lugar. Jesús tenía una percepción diferente. Jesús se identifica a sí mismo no con el Templo, sino como el templo. Al hacerlo, Jesús mostró un cambio dramático en lo que significa adorar a Dios, estar en la presencia de Dios. Ya no sería un sitio el centro de oración. Ahora una persona, la persona de Jesucristo, viene a ser el centro de nuestra adoración.

LECTURAS DE HOY

Primera lectura — Siempre que las aguas frescas del templo fluyen, todo florece (Ezequiel 47:1-2, 8-9, 12).

Salmo — Un río alegra la ciudad de Dios (Salmo 46 [45]).

Segunda lectura — Tú eres el templo de Dios y el Espíritu de Dios vive en ti (1 Corintios 3:9c-11, 16-17).

Evangelio — “Destruyan este templo y yo lo reedificaré en tres días”, Jesús dijo hablando del templo de su cuerpo (Juan 2:13-22).

NECESITAMOS DE SUS ORACIONES

Hay muchas personas con necesidades de Oración, los padres que pierden sus hijos por accidentes, la violencia, drogas enfermedad etc. la guerra en el medio oriente, las personas con enfermedades terminales, nuestros ancianos que están postrados en una cama y no tienen consuelo, los que pierden su mente y por nuestras necesidades.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

Hoy celebramos la memoria de la Iglesia madre de la cristiandad. Por extraña coincidencia, no está en Jerusalén donde nació la Iglesia, tampoco es la Basílica de San Pedro en el Vaticano, donde está el sepulcro (o la tumba) de san Pedro. Esta iglesia es la Basílica que está dedicada a la memoria del Divino Salvador, a san Juan Bautista y a san Juan Evangelista. Fue la primera basílica consagrada en el año 324 al culto cristiano en Roma.

De allí ha tenido una larga trayectoria, y aunque es la catedral del obispo de Roma, el Papa se trasladó al Vaticano en 1377, luego de que el papado estuvo durante un período de 100 años en Francia.

Al recordar la consagración de la Basílica de Letrán no debemos olvidar lo que dice san Pablo: “Cada uno de nosotros somos un templo del Espíritu Santo” (1 Corintios 6:19). En un sueño, Inocencio III vio que Letrán estaba por caerse, pero san Francisco pudo sostenerla en pie. Ojalá que cada vez que nosotros estemos por caer, llegue alguien que nos pueda sostener como templos de Dios.

LA BASILICA DE LETRAN

Hoy nos unimos como Iglesia universal para celebrar la sede del Santo Padre en Roma en el año 324 AD. Esta gran basílica de San Juan de Letrán se ha convertido un signo de unidad y paz para todos los peregrinos que van a Roma y para el mundo entero. Las lecturas de hoy nos ayudan a relacionar la imagen del templo con la Iglesia, un edificio construido con nuestras vidas de discípulos sobre la primera piedra que es Jesucristo, el Señor. En el Evangelio, la reacción de Jesús ante la conducta impropia en el templo de Jerusalén nos conduce a considerar el respeto y el amor mutuos que debemos compartir, ya que, por nuestro bautismo, somos templos del Espíritu Santo. De la misma manera, al entrar a nuestros templos-iglesias, debemos reflejar siempre en nuestra conducta, en nuestro vestir, en nuestra forma de hablar el mismo respeto que merece el acto sagrado en que vamos a participar en la Liturgia. También este es un buen tema de diálogo para nuestros ministros laicos. En el espíritu de esta gran fiesta, necesitamos fomentar la hospitalidad y acogida a nuestra iglesias de todos los que buscan a Dios y utilizar la catequesis para una mejor explicación de los signos que en ellas encuentran
