Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time
They that are planted in the house of the Lord shall flourish in the courts of our God.
-Psalm 92:14

ALL IS GRACE

On Sundays in Ordinary Time, the Old Testament reading is selected for the light it sheds on the day's Gospel. Today, Ezekiel sees God lifting up the lowly tree and making the withered tree bloom. So in the second parable of today's Gospel, Jesus encourages us by promising that, as fragile seeds grow into an abundant harvest, and the tiny mustard seed into a hearty plant, so God will grow the kingdom from small beginnings to an instrument of salvation for all. In the first parable, the land yields fruit "of its own accord" (Mark 4:28). Not only is the initiative God's, but the parable teaches that the seed's growth, though invisible at first, is actually unstoppable! To be sure, those who depend on the impressive or dramatic in order to be convinced or encouraged will be disappointed in the slow unfolding of the kingdom that Jesus announces. But for those who do accept the kingdom, all is grace, and that grace is certain.

Though the second reading is not coordinated with either the first reading or Gospel on these Sundays, today's is thematically appropriate. Saint Paul argues that our experience of God's trustworthiness thus far should make us a people of undaunted courage and unshakable faith. But at the same time Paul warns that faith should also make us aware of our responsibility to do good.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITIONS

A wedding celebrated in the Eastern Church has a form that was fixed a thousand years ago. In the West, our story is more complicated by constant change and variation. As the world's structures tottered in the ninth century, bishops and priests stepped into the void left by collapsing civil structures. For the first time, marriage was referred to as a sacrament, and wedding ceremonies were to be in public (assuring the free consent of the bride) after an investigation of the couple by a priest. The custom of the blessing of the bridal room diminished, and was finally forbidden in 1012 by the Council of Rouen, although it continued for centuries. In the diocese of Perigueux in France, a ritual from 1827 had the parish priest clad in surplice and stole sprinkling the bridal couple as they stood modestly in their pajamas by the wedding bed. Next the bed and all those present were sprinkled, too! That's a tradition that few Americans, either the betrothed or the clergy, are ready to revive!

PARISH STEWARDSHIP

PASTORAL COUNCIL

The Pastoral Council met May 22, 2015. The meeting was a combined meeting with the Pastoral Council and the Finance Council to discuss the 2015/1016 proposed budget.

The meeting opened with a prayer. The 2016 proposed budget reflects a significant trend in the reduction of offertory income, as well as a six-year trend of a marked decrease in the parish's net income.

As this is an unhealthy position the Finance council asked that the 2016 Fiscal Year include additional fund raising opportunities, as well as a decrease in unbudgeted expenditures.

Fund raisers proposed were a Luau, a Mexican dinner, sponsored by the Hispanic community, and some type of New Year's Eve fund raising function.

More encouragement for the community to use the SHARE cards at local grocery stores issued by SAVEMART. This is no cost to the user but a percentage comes back to the parish.

Discussion followed about the use of missalettes for the church, OCP the current provider has stopped publishing the ones we now use and have gone to a larger form.

Father Joyle proposed a sponsorship program for liturgical and office needs.

Other fund raising ideas were discussed. Fr. Joyle will be celebrating 25 years as a priest next year and hopes a fundraiser can be arranged.

June 27/28 representative from the California Catholic Conference will be at all Masses to enroll our parishioners as members. This is the official public policy voice of the catholic Church in California.

Meeting concluded with a prayer.

SOCIAL JUSTICE

June: Torture Awareness Month

Every June, the National Religious Campaign Against Torture brings our attention to the issues of torture. Our Catholic Church reminds us that torture is never justified under any circumstances. Torture violates the basic dignity of the human person, and it is morally wrong. As true followers of Jesus, we are called to compassion—to care not only when people are hurt or degraded—but to stand with those who are abused and oppressed. Be informed: torture is wrong. See the information in the main vestibule of the church regarding torture.

Water Collection for the Homeless

The Social Justice Ministry is collecting bottled water for the homeless during the summer months. The women and men, who call the streets “their home” are grateful for the water. There are containers in the entryways of the church for your donations. If you would prefer to give a monetary donation to purchase some bottled water, please put it in an envelope marked “Water for SJM.” Please put your envelope in the collection basket at Mass, or bring it to the parish office. Your kindness is appreciated. Questions? Contact Ja’net at 284-2008 or Lorraine at 363-3065.

Bake Sale, June 28

Members of the Social Justice Ministry will have a bake sale on Sunday, June 28 after the Masses. Proceeds from the sale will go to purchase school shoes for children in need in our area. We hope you will buy some of the items. If you would also like to donate an item for us to sell, please bring it before Mass on June 28 to our table. Thank you in advance for your support of our efforts to provide shoes for children in families who are struggling financially.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION CENTER

The second CFF class to utilize the Religious Education Center has just been completed. It is hard to believe that the Religious Education Center is almost 2 years old. Sister Kathy and the Catechists have had a very successful year.

Over 400 students attended classes this year. 115 students made their First Communion and 67 received Confirmation.

In addition RCIA had 11 students fully initiated into the Catholic faith.

These numbers give you an idea of how badly the new building was needed. In addition they speak firmly of the dedication of all our Catechists. Each of our CFF teachers and RCIA leaders are volunteers who recognize the importance of our faith. They dedicated themselves to sharing their love of Jesus with their students. The students are the future of the Catholic Church; the teachers are ensuring that future.

If you know any of the Catechists be sure to thank them for sharing their time and talents to spread the Good News.

Undécimo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario 14 de junio 2015

TODO ES GRACIA

Durante los domingos del Tiempo Ordinario, la lectura del Antiguo Testamento se relaciona con el tema del Evangelio de ese domingo. Hoy Ezequiel ve a Dios elevar los árboles pequeños y florecer los árboles secos. Y en las parábolas del Evangelio de hoy, Jesús nos anima poniendo como ejemplos el fruto abundante que puede dar una semilla y que la semilla tan pequeña de mostaza crece y se convierte en uno de los arbustos más grandes, y así es Dios quien hace crecer el Reino de un pequeño comienzo a un instrumento de salvación para todos. En la primera parábola la tierra por sí sola produce el fruto (Marcos 4:28). Además de la iniciativa de Dios, la parábola enseña que el crecimiento de la semilla, al principio invisible, no se puede detener. Para estar seguros, las personas que dependen de lo que impresiona o llama fuertemente la atención para estar convencidas o animadas pues van a estar decepcionadas en lo despacio que se hace realidad el reino que Jesús anunció. Pero para quienes aceptan el reino, todo es gracia y la gracia es verdadera.

Aún cuando la segunda lectura no se relaciona ni con la primera ni con el Evangelio durante estos domingos; hay que considerar el mensaje que tiene la de hoy. San Pablo afirma que en nuestro camino de fe confiamos en Dios y esto debe hacernos un pueblo de valor indomable y fe inquebrantable. Y al mismo tiempo Pablo nos advierte que la fe también debe hacernos conscientes de nuestra responsabilidad de hacer el bien.

LECTURAS DE HOY

Primera lectura — Elevaré los árboles pequeños (Ezequiel 17:22-24).

Salmo — ¡Qué bueno es darte gracias, Señor! (Salmo 92 [91]).

Segunda lectura — En el destierro o en la patria, nos esforzamos por agradar al Señor (2 Corintios 5:6-10).

Evangelio — El hombre siembra su campo, y sin que él sepa cómo, la semilla germina y crece (Marcos 4:26-34).

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

Jesús manifiesta su poder mediante el perdón de los pecados (Marcos 2:1-12). Por medio de la reconciliación con Dios, Jesús sana a los enfermos, marginalizados y hasta sus propios enemigos. Este poder de perdonar pecados Jesús mismo lo encarga a su Iglesia, infundiendo su Espíritu sobre los primeros discípulos (Juan 20:22-23).

Según el Símbolo (Credo) de los Apóstoles, los cristianos creemos en el “perdón de los pecados”. Esta creencia se relaciona con creer en el Espíritu Santo, la Iglesia, la comunión de los santos, la resurrección del cuerpo y la vida eterna. En el perdón de los pecados, el Espíritu Santo manifiesta su continua presencia y acción en la Iglesia y comunión de los santos. Quienes reciben el perdón de los pecados mediante la celebración del Bautismo o el sacramento de la Reconciliación, están preparados para la resurrección y la vida eterna.

El perdón de los pecados manifiesta el poder de Cristo, del Espíritu Santo y de la Iglesia. Los cristianos estamos llamados al perdón; perdonando, así como deseamos ser perdonados. Perdonando, como Jesucristo.

MEDITACION

Sed Santos, porque yo soy Santo

Todos sabemos que existe un Dios que nos ama, que nos ha creado. Podemos acudir a él y pedirle: “Padre mío, ayúdame. Deseo ser santa, deseo ser buena, deseo amar. La santidad no es un lujo para unos pocos, ni estará restringida sólo a algunas personas. Está hecha para ti, para mi y para todos. Es un deber sencillo, por que si aprendemos amar, aprendemos a ser santos.

El primer paso para ser santo, es desearlo. Jesús quiere que seamos tan santos como el Padre. La santidad consiste en hacer la voluntad de Dios con alegría. Las palabras “deseo ser santo” significan: quiero despojarme de todo lo que no sea de Dios; quiero despojarme y vaciar mi corazón de cosas materiales. Quiero renunciar a mi voluntad, a mis inclinaciones, a mis caprichos, a mi inconstancia y ser esclavo generoso de la voluntad de Dios. Con total voluntad amaré a Dios, optaré por él, correré hacia él, llegaré a él y lo poseeré. Pero todo depende de las palabras “quiero” o “no quiero”. He puesto toda mi energía en la palabra “quiero”.

Beata Teresa de Cacuta.
Fundadora de las Hermanas de la Caridad.

*Que mi oración, Señor llegue hasta ti
Como incienso en tu presencia;*

*Y el alzar de mis manos, como ofrenda de la tarde,
Gloria al Padre, y al Hijo y al Espíritu Santo, al Dios que es, que era y que viene, por los siglos de los siglos, Amen*
