THE WIND AND THE SEA

Living along the shores of Lake Superior—the “big lake,” as the locals call it—you can often hear the advice, “Respect the lake; don’t take it for granted.” People who know Lake Superior respect its power and watch out for its many moods. Sunken ships and boats crushed into kindling are testimonies to what the lake can do.

The readings of this Sunday evoke our memories of the lake, of the mighty Mississippi River, or of the ocean itself. Who but God can control these mighty waters and set limits to their advance? The lake described in today’s Gospel was a body of water subject to sudden storms and churned into dangerous waves by terrible winds.

But these mighty agents are subject to God. The sailor and the fisher all respect the water. Even more, they respect the awesome power of the Maker of wind and sea.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITIONS

When you are thinking about traditions in the Church, 1563 is a “watershed” year. The Council of Trent began a reform of the liturgy that put an end to old practices and set many of our present practices in place. For the first time, engaged people were absolutely required to appear before their parish priest, and to exchange consent in his presence along with two witnesses. To this day, Catholics are obliged to this form, namely: to marry another Catholic in the presence of a priest (or deacon) and two witnesses, unless dispensed from the law.

The Council really didn’t forbid customs and ceremonies that added life to the celebration, but the mood of the times was dark and somewhat austere. Practices like the blessing of the marriage bed or using a canopy for the nuptial blessing started to fade away, as did the custom of bringing the presents for the couple to the church and the addition of fiddlers and jugglers to the procession. The Council of Trent tried to preserve local customs, but the long-term effect was to standardize celebrations everywhere in the world.

FATHER'S DAY

Happy Father's Day to our parish family and to all Fathers, both living and deceased, whom we hold so close in our hearts.

PARISH STEWARDSHIP

PASTORAL COUNCIL

The Pastoral Council met May 22, 2015.
The meeting was a combined meeting with the Pastoral Council and the Finance Council to discuss the 2015/1016 proposed budget.

The meeting opened with a prayer.
The 2016 proposed budget reflects a significant trend in the reduction of offertory income, as well as a six-year trend of a marked decrease in the parish's net income.

As this is an unhealthy position the Finance council asked that the 2016 Fiscal Year include additional fund raising opportunities, as well as a decrease in unbudgeted expenditures.

Fund raisers proposed were a Luau, a Mexican dinner, sponsored by the Hispanic community, and some type of New Year's Eve fund raising function.

More encouragement for the community to use the SHARE cards at local grocery stores issued by SAVEMART. This is no cost to the user but a percentage comes back to the parish.

Discussion followed about the use of missalettes for the church, OCP the current provider has stopped publishing the ones we now use and have gone to a larger form.

Father Joyle proposed a sponsorship program for liturgical and office needs.

Other fund raising ideas were discussed. Fr. Joyle will be celebrating 25 years as a priest next year and hopes a fundraiser can be arranged.

June 27/28 representative from the California Catholic Conference will be at all Masses to enroll our parishioners as members. This is the official public policy voice of the catholic Church in California.

Meeting concluded with a prayer.

SOCIAL JUSTICE

Next Sunday members of the Social Justice Ministry will have a bake sale after the Masses to raise funds to buy school shoes for children in need in our area. The Ministry is also accepting monetary donations toward the purchase of shoes. For more information contact Lorraine at 363-0365.

Water for the Homeless this week

Members of the Social Justice Ministry will be handing out water to the homeless this week. We have had some really hot weather this week, over 100 degrees. Your donations of bottled water will be appreciated. There are boxes in the entrances of the church for your donations.

What is Extraordinary Rendition?

Extraordinary renditions means the forcible transfer of a person from one country to another without any judicial or administrative oversight. It is designed to evade public and judicial scrutiny, to hide identity of the perpetrators, and the fate of the victims. The victims are in danger of facing torture, or cruel, inhuman and degrading treatment. Extraordinary rendition is morally indefensible and breeds hostility towards the U.S. throughout the world.

There is information in the entrances of the church regarding this subject. June is torture awareness month. Be informed. Pray for peace. Work for justice!

REFLECTION..... BISHOP COTTA

With the end of May, dedicated to the Blessed Mother, the month of June is dedicated to her Son, Jesus and his Most Sacred Heart.

With the present state of world affairs, the timing is perfect to approach, with a renewed sense of devotion the Sacred Heart of Jesus. The mercy of the Sacred Heart can have a great impact in our personal lives, but also in the life of this "broken" world.

Let us call out to Our Lord that he will pour out his Divine Mercy upon our persecuted brothers and sisters in the Middle East. May Christ have mercy on all who are being martyred for the Faith.

Why is this happening? When sin runs rampant a spiritual darkness enshrouds the mind and heart. When repentance and conversion is ignored the world will face the consequences. As the nations of the world struggle to solve the global concerns of the Middle East let us do our part to combat the evil that threatens Christianity, and our world. Let us utilize the spiritual weapons of prayer and penance and turn to the Sacred Heart of Jesus for his "grace and mercy."

Throughout the month of June, all our parishes in the Diocese are invited to offer special prayers for the suffering in the Middle East, and for peace. With the prayers of the Immaculate Heart of Mary, may the Love and Mercy of the Sacred Heart of her Son, assist us in healing a world which has turned away from God and has turned toward itself.

Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, have mercy on us and on the whole world.

Bishop Cotta.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION CENTER

White Elephant Sale

It's hard to believe that July is almost here. July marks the beginning of the collection of items for the White Elephant Sale. The profits from this event help to pay for the utility and custodian fees for the Religious Education Center.

If you're not sure what the White Elephant Sale is think of it as a Parish yard sale. Beginning on July 1st the chairpersons of this event, Ann Viernes and Esther Conrad will be in the parish hall accepting items you would like to donate. These should be usable, and in good shape, items that no longer fit your needs.

Clean clothing that you no longer need, or have been in your closet for a while, and you haven't found a reason to wear. Or as a priest once said, you have clothes in your closet that "belong to other people."

Now is your opportunity to bring your items and put them to good use, and at the same time raise money for the parish. Items will be collected the entire month of July, and the White Elephant Sale will be July 31st, August 1st and 2nd.

PLEASE NOTE:

The leaders would like to remind you that they cannot accept electronic items, and clothing should be donated with hangers.

Decimosegundo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario 21 de junio 2015

EL VIENTO Y EL MAR

Los que conocen bien el Lago Superior le tienen un saludable respeto, y siempre están alerta sobre sus caprichosos cambios de ánimo. Muchos barcos hundidos y muchos botes hechos astillas son testigos de lo que el lago puede hacer cuando está de mal humor.

Las lecturas de este domingo nos evocan memorias de ese lago, del poderoso río Mississippi o del océano mismo. ¿Quién, fuera de Dios, podrá controlar esas aguas poderosas, o imponerles límites, diciendo “Hasta aquí llegarás”? El lago que describe el Evangelio de hoy era un lago en el que se levantaban súbitas tormentas, en las que los vientos huracanados agitaban olas enormes.

Pero estas fuerzas tan poderosas se someten a la voluntad de Dios. Los marineros y los pescadores le tienen un saludable respeto al poder de las aguas. Pero más todavía respetan el poder del Creador del viento y del mar.

LECTURAS DE HOY

Primera lectura — Aquí se romperá la arrogancia de tus olas (Job 38:1, 8-11).

Salmo — Demos gracias al Señor por sus bondades (Salmo 107 [106]).

Segunda lectura — Ya todo es nuevo (2 Corintios 5:14-17).

Evangelio — ¿Quién es éste, a quien hasta el viento y el mar obedecen? (Marcos 4:35-41).

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

Jesús promete a sus discípulos una vida en abundancia (Juan 10:10). Él desea lo mejor para nosotros y quiere que estemos bien en todos los aspectos de nuestra vida: familia y amistades, trabajo, economía, salud, etcétera. Sin embargo, Jesús también nos promete la persecución y el maltrato (Marcos 10:29; Mateo 5:11; Lucas 6:22; Juan 15:18).

La vida abundante es bella pero nunca fácil. La vida cristiana es como toda vida humana; tiene momentos de tranquilidad y de tempestad. Así como un día nos brilla el sol, otro día nos sacuden los vientos y nuestras pequeñas lanchas parecen inundarse.

No hay que desanimarse o asustarse cuando lleguen estas tormentas. Más bien, hay que recordar el Evangelio (Marcos 4:35-41) donde Jesús duerme en la barca de sus discípulos. Es interesante el detalle de Jesús quien, cansado y tranquilo, duerme mientras el mar sacude a la barca y a los discípulos. Menos mal que se les ocurrió recurrir al Señor. Y tú, ¿qué haces cuando el viento sopla y la vida te estremece? No temas, despierta a Cristo a quien llevas en tu corazón.

SOLEMNIDAD DE NATIVIDAD DE SAN JUAN BAUTISTA

Hubo en tiempo de Herodes, rey de Judea, un sacerdote llamado Zacarías, del grupo de Abías, casado con una descendiente de Aarón, llamada Isabel. Ambos eran justos a los ojos de Dios, pues vivían irreprochablemente, cumpliendo los mandamientos y disposiciones del Señor. Pero no tenían hijos, porque Isabel era estéril y los dos, de avanzada edad.

Un día en que le correspondía a su grupo desempeñar ante Dios los oficios sacerdotales, le tocó a Zacarías, según la costumbre de los sacerdotes, entrar al santuario del Señor para ofrecer el incienso, mientras todo el pueblo estaba afuera, en oración, a la hora de la incensación.

Se le apareció entonces un ángel del Señor, de pie, a la derecha del altar del incienso. Al verlo, Zacarías se sobresaltó y un gran temor se apoderó de él. Pero el ángel le dijo: “No temas, Zacarías, porque tu súplica ha sido escuchada. Isabel, tu mujer, te dará un hijo, a quien le pondrás el nombre de Juan. Tú te llenarás de alegría y regocijo, y otros muchos se alegrarán también de su nacimiento, pues él será grande a los ojos del Señor; no beberá vino ni licor, y estará lleno del Espíritu Santo, ya desde el seno de su madre. Convertirá a muchos israelitas al Señor; irá delante del Señor con el espíritu y el poder de Elías, para convertir los corazones de los padres hacia sus hijos, dar a los rebeldes la cordura de los justos y prepararle así al Señor un pueblo dispuesto a recibirlo”.
