*The Lord has done great things for us,
we are glad indeed.*
-Psalm 126:3

TRUE BLINDNESS

Bartimaeus caused a stir. Normally he sat by the side of the road being a "good blind beggar." But one day Jesus passed nearby. Bartimaeus jumped up and called out to Jesus. We can imagine him turning toward the direction of the commotion and noise. Bartimaeus probably had his arms outstretched as he shouted out to the son of David.

The people who knew him were embarrassed by his outburst. They tried to hush him up and get him to sit back down by the roadside. Their actions spoke volumes: "Bartimaeus, you're not fit for Jesus." But it was okay for them and other "sighted" people to follow Jesus. In today's readings, we learn that true blindness is not a condition of our eyes but of our hearts .

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITIONS

In the tangled but fascinating history of penance in the Church, the Irish "tariff" system helped us survive the collapse of the old system of public canonical penance and prepared the way for a new system that emerged in the twelfth century. The old form was unrepeatable, public, dealt with serious community matters, and regulated by the bishops as chief reconcilers. The new form had a more intimate setting of penitent and confessor, was extremely repeatable, and applied to everyone. The old canonical form was closed to children, who were hardly capable of the very grown-up sins listed, or their demanding remedies. The old form was likewise closed to clerics, who were protected in a sense by the very nature of the discipline.

In the new Irish form the penitent directly named sins, or answered direct questions by the priest. Sometimes, the penitent would recite a long formula accusing him- or herself in a general way of all sorts of sins, even from the distant past. Next, priest and penitent together would lie prostrate before the altar and recite several of the psalms with penitential themes. Finally, the priest would pronounce a judgment, deciding what form and duration the penance should take, normally insisting that the person return for reconciliation once the penances were completed.

MASS OF REMEMBRANCE

The Bereavement Ministry invites you to participate in the annual "Mass of Remembrance" to be held on Monday, November 9th at 6:30pm as we pay homage and respect to those of our parish community who have left this earthly life during the past year. We ask the entire faith community of St. Paul Parish to join together on this important day of prayer and remembrance. For additional information please contact Clara Heimericks at (916) 689-3932.

PARISH STEWARDSHIP

PASTORAL COUNCIL

The meeting opened with a prayer for the Pope's visit to the USA. Minutes were approved and corrections made.

The White Elephant Chairman for next year will meet with the Council and present a plan on the running of the event.

The Mr. & Miss St. Paul fundraiser is going well. First counting of tickets was October 3rd. A status report will be given at the next meeting.

The Fall Festival was a success, lower attendance than last year due to the heat. The financial report will be issued at the next meeting. The Pastoral Council will be chairing the Festival next year. Suggestion was made on moving the date to escape the heat a little. Entertainment and Horse Show will not be scheduled simultaneously next year. Need more Spanish entertainment.

The St. Lorenzo Mass wasn't well attended. A recommendation was made to research the cost of purchasing a statue of St. Lorenzo.

The Feasibility Study for the Diocesan and Parish Capital Campaign will be presented to the Finance Council in October.

Missalettes will no longer be purchased for the church, starting with Advent. Limited number of copies of the prayers for the Sunday Masses will be printed and placed in the pews.

Fr. Joyle will lead a 6 week Bible Study program beginning October 22nd. Classes start at 6:30pm. Call the office to register for the class.

Next meeting will be October 19th.

SOCIAL JUSTICE

Did you Get the Information

The 40 Days For Life Campaign ends next Sunday, November 1st. Did you have a chance to pick up any of the free information in the church's entryways? Let us keep ourselves informed and aware of the destruction of unborn children and advocate for defunding abortions by Planned Parenthood.

Coats in November

On one of the Sundays in early November—maybe the weather will be cooler by then—there will be a coat giveaway after the Sunday Masses. Notice will be given as soon as the date is confirmed. If you, or your children, need coats for the winter, the coats are in good condition and some are new.

World Day Against the Death Penalty

October 10th was the World Day against the Death Penalty. In his address to Congress last month, Pope Francis called for the abolition of the death penalty. Speaking to all Americans, the Pope proclaimed the inalienable dignity of life and the need to seek hope and rehabilitation in the pursuit of justice. As our country grapples with the consequences of a broken criminal justice system, let us open our hearts to Pope Francis' message that no person should be thrown away and that every life is valued.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

Knights Annual Thanksgiving Food Drive

There are bins in the vestibule of the church to collect non perishable food items for families in need during the Thanksgiving season. The Knights of Columbus will be giving out 250 food baskets again this year and we hope these baskets will contain enough food for a family to enjoy a full Thanksgiving Dinner and more. Please go through your cupboards and pantries and donate any items that you can. Please remember the less fortunate when you are doing your grocery shopping!

Join the Knights of Columbus

If you would like to find out more about becoming a Knight please ask any Knight, they should all be wearing their name badges, or call Roger Tafoya at (916) 936-3810.

URBAN FIRE SAFETY

Due to the potential of devastating loss due to fires, the Catholic Mutual offers a few helpful suggestions:

Keep all roofs, eaves and gutters free of debris.

If you have firewood, move the stacks of wood away from the building.

Remove dead vegetation from around buildings and grounds

Try to plant fire resistant plants and shrubs.

Trim trees and shrubs.

Trigésimo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario 25 de octubre 2015

VERDADERA CEGUERA

Bartimeo causó tremenda conmoción. Por lo regular él estaba sentado al borde del camino siendo un “buen mendigo ciego”. Pero un buen día pasó Jesús cerca de ahí. Bartimeo se puso de pie en un salto y le gritó a Jesús. Nos podemos imaginar como se daba vuelta en dirección al ruido y la conmoción. Probablemente tenía los brazos extendidos al gritarle al hijo de David.

Los que lo conocían se sentían azorados de sus gritos. Trataron de hacerle callar y que se volviera a sentar al borde del camino. Sus acciones decían mucho: “Bartimeo, tú no eres digno de Jesús”. Pero sí estaba bien que ellos y otras personas “con vista” siguieran a Jesús. En las lecturas de hoy, aprendemos que la verdadera ceguera no es una condición de los ojos sino del corazón

LECTURAS DE HOY

Primera lectura — ¡Vitoreen con alegría! Yavé ha salvado a su pueblo, al resto de Israel. He llegado a ser un padre para Israel (Jeremías 31:7-9).

Salmo — Grandes cosas has hecho por nosotros, Señor (Salmo 126 [125]).

Segunda lectura — Cristo no se atribuyó la dignidad de sumo sacerdote, sino que se la otorgó aquel que dice: “Tú eres mi Hijo, te he dado vida hoy mismo” (Hebreos 5:1-6).

Evangelio — Jesús le concede la vista a Bartimeo cuando con gran fe le suplica: “Maestro, que vea” (Marcos 10:46-52).

EL DIA DE TODOS LOS DIFUNTOS

Noviembre es el mes para recordar a nuestros seres queridos. 01 de noviembre Día de Todos los Santos, y el 2 de noviembre es día de los difuntos. Ese día habrá una Misa 8:00 am en Inglés y las 6:30 pm en español. Todos los sobres para las Almas se pueden encontrar en la entrada de la iglesia. Todos los sobres permanecerán en el altar todo el mes de noviembre

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

En varias ocasiones, Jesús le declara al recién sanado: “tu fe te ha salvado” (Marcos 10:52). Todos los cristianos deseamos ser salvados. Y, ¿qué es la salvación? La palabra “salvación” viene del latín salus que también significa “salud”. La salvación es el bienestar en todas sus formas. Es el estar bien con Dios, con las demás personas, con la creación y consigo mismo. Los hebreos le llaman shalom y los árabes llaman salam que quiere decir: “paz y bien”. Por siglos y hasta el presente, el saludo de los pueblos semitas es: “La paz sea contigo”. Se responde “Y también contigo”.

Según Jesús este shalom, salam, salus, salvación, paz y bien se consigue por medio de la fe. Hay que tener un deseo profundo de tenerlo, para así pedirlo: “Jesús, Hijo de David, ten piedad de mí” (Marcos 10:47). La salvación no llega a quienes la esperan sentados en una iglesia, más bien, llega a los que se mueven y obran por ella.

MEDITATION

Pescadores, reflexionad, volved a vuestro corazón.

Hay muchas cosas que causa de la debilidad humana no logramos cumplir, pero, si verdaderamente queremos, con la inspiración de Dios, podemos encontrar el amor en nuestro corazón. Existen a veces muchas cosas que no logramos sacar de nuestro granero, pero no tenemos excusa cuando se trata de nuestro corazón. No nos dicen: “Id hasta Oriente, y buscad el amor; navegad hacia el occidente y encontrareis el amor” No nos ordenan regresar al interior de nuestro corazón, donde la cólera nos hace salir a menudo. Así como lo dice el profeta: Pescadores, reflexionad, regresad a vuestro corazón.

Lo que el Señor, nos pide no se encuentra en países lejanos; nos envía la interior de nosotros mismos, a nuestro corazón, porque ha puesto en nosotros lo que nos pide. La caridad perfecta no es otra que la buena voluntad del alma; a propósito de ésta, los ángeles proclaman a los pastores: paz en la tierra a los hombres de buena voluntad. Trabajemos, pues, con toda nuestras fuerzas, con la ayuda de Dios, para conceder el primer puesto en nuestra alma a la bondad y no a la maldad, a la paciencia y no a la cólera, a la benevolencia y no a la envidia, a la humildad y no al orgullo. En fin, que la dulzura de la caridad tome de tal manera posesión de nuestro corazón que ya no quede sitio en él para la amargura del odio.

MINISTERIO DE JUSTICIA SOCIAL

Qué pasa con los zapatos?

A finales de junio de este año, nuestro Ministerio de Justicia Social hizo una venta de pasteles para recaudar el dinero para comprar zapatos para niños necesitados de escuelas en nuestra área. Agradecemos a todos los que nos apoyaron. Hasta la fecha se han comprado 55 pares de zapatos. Como miembro de nuestro S.J.M. se pone en contacto con el distrito escolar acerca de los niños necesitados de zapatos, y se continuará comprando.

Damos las gracias a este miembro de nuestro ministerio por su diligencia en ir a comprar los zapatos. También agradecemos a un miembro de nuestra parroquia que ofreció una beca de $ 500 en Wal-Mart para comprar zapatos para todos estos niños necesitados.
