and ruler of the kings of the earth.*
-Revelation 1:5

TRUE STEWARDSHIP

The gospel message proclaimed throughout the New Testament invites us to live in harmony with the world. This is a challenge to care for the world and be stewards of all that God has given us. Like generations before us, we are entrusted with the care of the earth so that generations to follow may enjoy the same gifts. Sometimes, however, we are absorbed into the ways of the world. When we are of the world, we rely heavily on the power of wealth, beauty, fame, and accumulation of material possessions. We want earthly possessions and carelessly turn our hearts from the responsibilities of stewardship and conservation.

The readings today challenge us to walk away from the world so that we might inherit our share of God's kingdom. How we live our lives directly reflects our love for God.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

For good reason, Americans have been ambivalent about "kings" for many years, even long before George III's troops were sent packing in 1776. To say Christ is our King is to make a statement not about our politics, but about the dignity of our own identity. At our baptism, the crown of our head was once slathered (or at last dabbed) with oil while the Church prayed "as Christ was anointed priest, prophet and king, so may you live always as his body." To celebrate Christ's kingship, then, is to claim our own identity.

Your head was anointed just as Samuel poured oil over David's head. David had his gifts, but he was no prize, and perhaps that might comfort you as you think about your call, out of the messiness of your own life, to stretch into a lifestyle that is marked by worship, by prophetic speech and deeds, and the kingly ability to fashion a world (or at least a patch of it) where relationships are marked by justice, mercy, and cultivation of the good. It is precisely because of this kingly role that our faith community has something to say about the environment, about the dignity of human life, just wages, access to health care and education, the building of peace, and avoidance of war. In a few weeks' time we will hymn the coming of the "newborn king," but today we sketch out the meaning of his reign, and our own incorporation into his work for the life of the world.

TRUE GRATITUDE

Let us remember that, as much has been given us, much will be expected from us, and that true homage comes from the heart as well as from the lips, and shows itself in deeds.

—Theodore Roosevelt

REJOICE

"Rejoice!" is – A solo concert, featuring May Gorospe-Favis, a well decorated lyric soprano, breast cancer survivor, a wife and mother of three. It will be held here at St. Paul Church on December 13, 2015, Sunday, from 6pm-7:30pm. The invitation is extended not only to all St Paul parishioners but also to the neighboring parishes and the entire Diocese of Sacramento. Beginning this weekend, tickets at $10 for adults and $5 for children 12 years and under will be available after each Mass and at the parish office during weekdays.

A portion of the proceeds will benefit the Albie Aware Breast Cancer Foundation in the name of Ms. May Gorospe-Favis and to St. Paul's Building Fund. Tickets are limited inasmuch as our church can only accommodate a certain number of people. Treat yourself, your family and friends to this advent evening serenade of songs of joy and hope that relieves the soul and heart to celebrate Christmas with different aura. For more information, check the posters on our church billboards and the Parish web site.

THANK YOU

The organizers of Mr. and Miss St. Paul and St. Paul Church want to thank our young candidates, their parents and supporters for doing a wonderful job. Your hard work, valued time you shared, sacrifices and undying commitment to make this fund raising possible are worth more than we can ever be grateful. May God continue to bless your families with graces in the measure your generosity so greatly deserves.

MISSALETTES

The Parish Council and the Liturgical Committee of our parish had been discussing and considering in their past meetings to not ordering the missals we use in the church anymore. With their unanimous recommendation, there will be no more Missals in the pews starting this Advent. The Music Issue will still be available. The common prayers will also be available in laminated hard paper. Temporarily we will be printing the readings in English and Spanish side by side in the form of worship aid every weekend until such time the we will get used to it. The hospitality ministry will make them available only for those who are interested as they enter the church. The reasons why we will not subscribe to having missals in our church anymore are the following: The General Introduction of the Roman Missal (GIRM) states that the congregation should listen to the reading being proclaimed by the lectors and not reading the text with the lectors (GIRM #29). Otherwise we would not need lectors anymore to proclaim the Word of God and we would just read the texts ourselves.

Listening intently is the real decorum of the congregation while the readings are being read and proclaimed by the lector. Let us make ourselves focused on the readings during the celebration of the Word and be fully attentive while they are being read by the lector. Churches have started doing this for quite some time now, like the Cathedral, some churches in the diocese and most churches in the Midwest and East Coast.

LA VERADERA CORRESPONSABILIDAD

El mensaje del Evangelio que proclama el Nuevo Testamento nos invita a una vida de armonía con el mundo creado. Tenemos el reto de cuidar el mundo y sentirnos corresponsables de todo lo que Dios nos ha dado. Al igual que generaciones anteriores, se nos ha confiado el cuidado de la tierra para que las generaciones que nos sigan puedan disfrutar los mismos dones. Algunas veces, sin embargo, nos quedamos absortos en las cosas del mundo. Cuando somos del mundo, confiamos demasiado en el poder de la riqueza, la belleza, la fama y la acumulación de posesiones materiales. Deseamos las posesiones terrenas y con desdén alejamos nuestro corazón de las responsabilidades de nuestro deber de cuidar el planeta y preservarla.

Las lecturas de hoy nos retan a alejarnos del mundo para que podamos heredar nuestra parte del Reino de Dios. Cómo vivimos nuestra vida refleja nuestro amor por Dios.

LECTURAS DE HOY

Primera lectura – Cuando uno, como el Hijo del Hombre se dirigió hacia el anciano y fue llevado a su presencia, recibió el dominio eterno, un reinado indestructible (Daniel 7:13-14).

Salmo — Señor, tu eres nuestro rey (Salmo 93 [92]).

Segunda lectura – Que la gloria y el poder sean dados a Jesucristo, el primogénito de entre los muertos y Señor de toda la tierra (Apocalipsis 1:5-8).

Evangelio – Jesús como Rey, vino a ser testigo de la verdad. Quien escucha la verdad, escucha su voz (Juan 18:33b-37).

DÍA DE ACCION DE GRACIAS

Humildemente te pedimos, a ti, Señor; que eres la luz verdadera y la fuente misma de toda luz, que, meditando fielmente tu ley, vivamos siempre en tu claridad. Dándote gracias por lo que nos proporciona día a día y pedimos, por nuestros hermanos en desdicha, los que no ven tu luz y se hunden en la desesperación, por las catástrofes y por los que odian, ten piedad de ellos. Por nuestro Señor Jesucristo

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

A lo largo de los años, latinoamérica ha producido bellísimas imágenes de Cristo crucificado, una de ellas es el Señor de los Milagros (Perú). Normalmente estas imágenes llevan en la parte superior el acrónimo INRI. Estas iniciales son una abreviación de las palabras en latín: Iesus Nazarenus Rex Iudaeorum que en español significan Jesús de Nazaret, rey de los judíos (Mateo 27:37; Marcos 15:26; Lucas 23:38 y Juan 19:19). Con estas palabras, y sin quererlo, Pilato da a conocer al mundo la identidad de Jesús, mientras que él piensa que sólo está haciendo referencia a la causa de su muerte. El delito político de Jesús fue hacerse pasar por un rey y ésto, al Imperio Romano no le convenía. En realidad, el hecho de que Jesús es rey, no le conviene a ningún gobierno humano. El rey es el líder absoluto, al cual se le debe entrega incondicional.

Para los cristianos que habitamos en todas las naciones de la tierra, el hecho de que proclamemos que Jesús es nuestro rey, puede traernos serias dificultades. Los gobiernos humanos no siempre actúan conforme al Evangelio y por tal motivo, al cristiano que reconoce a Jesús como rey, le corresponde desafiar tales gobiernos. El reinado de Cristo no es de este mundo, pero juzga y cuestiona este mundo. Al cristiano le toca gritar, con su vida y con su palabra: ¡Viva Cristo Rey!

AGRADECIMIENTO DE CUMPLEAÑOS

Quiero agradecer por todos por los saludos, el apoyo y los regalos de las oraciones y sus bondades que tuvieron para mí durante las celebraciones de mis cumpleaños el pasado 30 de octubre. Fue una noche divertida para todos nosotros. Siempre voy a atesorar ese pensamiento de cómo esa noche era tan maravilloso para mí porque estaba todos a mí alrededor. Dios ha sido tan bueno para darme una nueva familia cuando de vez en cuando estoy asignado a una nueva parroquia. Quiero dar las gracias y sobre todo mencionar de los organizadores que han trabajado duramente para hacer esto posible. Edna Clegg, Mercedes Guerrero, Rosa Basos, Zeny Oriol, Luz Declan, Aida Azurin, María Bahoric, Elizabeth Rodríguez, Alex y Estrellita Avera, a los que apoyaron la música Rosendo Flores y a nuestro personal de la parroquia ..

Por supuesto, la generosidad es también reconocido por los donantes de nuestra comida para esa noche. Tuvimos una buena cena Filipino, Guamenian, Hispana, y otra comida variadas. Todas estaban deliciosas. Alabado sea Dios, ahora y por siempre. Pueda ser que Él, sea el origen de las cosas buenas, corresponder a su generosidad que merece tan grandemente cuanto yo soy igual de simple criatura de los recursos humildes. Dios los bendiga a todos.
