FAMILY LIFE

Family life is sacred, but it is not without trial. Perhaps this is the most important message we can glean from today's readings. If Jesus, Mary, and Joseph can trip up sometimes—can disconnect—then we shouldn't find it surprising when such things happen to us as well. And parents everywhere (children, too) can probably relate to—and take some solace in—the Gospel's account of Mary and Joseph after Jesus explained why he stayed behind in the temple. They heard his words, Luke tells us, "But they did not understand what he said to them" (Luke 2:50). Amen! Nevertheless, Jesus does go back home with them, and continues to thrive under their care.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITIONS

This New Year's Eve, at the turning of the year, you may catch a glimpse of the old year, a cartoon figure of a hunched old man with a sickle, Father Time. Where else but in this column could you learn that this is in fact a pope? December 31 was in the old calendar the feast of St. Sylvester. Legend says that Sylvester healed the Emperor Constantine of leprosy, and presided at the liturgy of baptism for the grateful emperor. In 314, he was chosen pope, and it fell to him to organize the peacetime church, free at last from persecution. He founded the Lateran Basilica, the cathedral of the Diocese of Rome.

In northern Europe "Sylvester Night" is a time of great parties with eating, dancing, and singing—recalling perhaps the joy of the church in the fresh air of Sylvester's papacy. In Poland, there was great fear as the year 1000 approached that an immense dragon would devour the earth and set fire to the heavens. The people prayed earnestly to St. Sylvester, trusting that the saint would not permit such suffering on his feast day. They've been celebrating ever since!

Many New Year's customs have pagan roots, like the British "First Footer" tradition. The idea is that the first person setting foot into your house in the new year determines the luck for the year ahead. The ideal first footer was not a bit like old Pope Sylvester, but rather a tall, dark-haired man carrying the right gift. A handsome first footer meant the year ahead would be pleasant, and if he carried bread or a shovel of coal there would be food and warmth in the future. Who will be your household's first footer?

PARISH STEWARDSHIP

PASTORAL COUNCIL

The meeting was opened by Paul Pham at 7:05 pm. Minutes from the October meeting were approved after corrections were made.

Congratulations to the winners of the Miss and Mr. St. Paul 2015 Fundraiser. They raised over $53,000 in gross income. We thank the candidates, their families and St. Paul community for their support.

“After reviewing the Feasibility Study the Finance Council made a decision to conduct a combined campaign to reduce the parish debt and support the Diocesan One Campaign in Spring 2016. The Diocese agreed to lower our assessment for the One Campaign to $ 158,000.”

.Missals will no longer be in the pews beginning First Sunday of Advent. A limited number of the readings will handed out by the Hospitality Ministers prior to each Mass. Please return them for the next Mass. Order of the Mass cards will also be placed in the pews.

Tickets for the December 13th “Rejoice!” concert fundraiser are being sold after all masses and available from all the ministries. Only 700 tickets will be sold.

The Gente Puente group is making progress in integrating English and Spanish spiritual activities with CFF and the parish. Several events and raffles are being planned to raise funds for the parish.

Our Lady of Guadalupe celebration on December 12th. Mananitas is at 6am and Mass at 6pm with Mariachi music. The parish community is encouraged to attend this special celebration.

Good Shepherd Parish was selected to be the Jubilee Church for the South Deanery.

Altar Servers are needed for all the masses. Contact Alexander Pham for more information.

SOCIAL JUSTICE

Thanks Again!

For those who missed our "thank you" from last weekend, the Social Justice Ministry thanks you again, through your kindness, the children, whose names were on the Jesse Giving Tree, received a Christmas gift. May you be blessed during this holy Christmas season for your thoughtfulness.

Our Knights

Appreciation goes to the Knights of Columbus for their donation of turkeys and boxes of non-perishable food that went to some of the families picking up their children's Jesse Tree gifts. Thank you also Knights for putting up our Christmas tree in the church's vestibule for the Jesse Giving Tree. You are always willing to help. Thank you gentlemen.

Lots of Socks!

During these past several weeks over 200 pairs of tube socks were donated by our parishioners for homeless men and women. These are especially appreciated during the cold winter months. Thank you!

Meeting Date

The next meeting of the SJM will be Monday, January 11 at 1:00pm in Room #1 of the Religious Education Center. All are welcome to come and join us. For more information contact Lorraine (916) 363-0365 lelatray@att.net

Mark your calendars for Sunday, January 17th, that is the date the Knights will have this year's Free Throw Competition. Watch for more details!

Wheel Chair Mission Weekend

The weekend of January 30/31, the Knights will be sponsoring Wheel Chair Mission Weekend. There will be speakers at all the masses to explain how you can get involved with providing wheelchairs to those in need.

There will be a Crab Feed!

Mark your calendars for Saturday, February 27th. That is the date for the Knights to have the best Crab Feed. Tickets will be available in January. Watch the bulletin and bulletin boards for details

Donuts and Coffee

The Knights will be serving coffee and donuts on Sunday, December 27th. There will be no breakfast on the first Sunday in January, due to the New Year's holiday. The Knights will be hosting coffee and donuts all the Sundays in January, with all the proceeds going to support the youth of our parish.

Join the Knights of Columbus

If you would like to find out more about becoming a Knight please ask any Knight, they should all be wearing their name badges, or call Roger Tafoya at (916) 936-3810.

'REJOICE'

Indeed, "Rejoice" was a wonderful experience...

Looking back 3 months ago - "Rejoice," began as a brain-child broached by May Gorospe-Favis to us with a simple phone call, then we became the instruments for an idea which wouldn't have become a realization without obtaining a nod from Father Joyle and the Finance & Pastoral Council members.

Next came our requests for the following sectors to respond: sound equipment & technical assistance from the Godfreys, our son Nathan, the Knights of Columbus, Hospitality Ministry, various St Paul Ministers for help in selling tickets & the availability of an experienced Master of Ceremonies (Emcee).

Our appreciation goes to our talented home-grown performers (and their parents) for participating in this musical event and most of all for May, whose courage & faith brought her to us here at St Paul Parish to generously share her message of hope and her gift of song..

..Lastly, the audience makes a show a success - thus, we're truly thankful for everyone who purchased tickets and attended the concert and for those who gave monetary donations, a humble and resounding "Thank you". Ultimately, "Rejoice" is God's project, we all belong to His Team... Glory & praise be to God for all His abundant blessings - "You'll Never Walk Alone"!!!

Thank you.

LOAVES & FISHES

Once again the Christmas season is here and Loaves and Fists are beset by plans to make this season as "homey" as possible for our sisters and brothers who no longer enjoy the amenities of home life.

Last month, Dan Delany, co founder of Loaves and Fishes passed away. In the early days the property that is now the Dining Room was put up for sale for $250,000. He proposed to the Board of Directors to purchase it. The total amount of the funds on hand was $6,000. Everyone thought this was impossible, not Dan! A man of deep faith, he coined the phrase "the bank of Faith." This meant that if fund raising efforts are caring for God's people, God will make it happen.

This Christmas season as we decorate, plan dinners, attend family gatherings, attend religious services let us remember that we bring life and strength to the Kingdom whenever and however we participate in the Works of Mercy.

We thank you for your generous support in the past and beg for your continued support in the "Bank of Faith" in the future. Chris Delany - Co Founder Loaves & Fishes

La Sagrada Familia de Jesús, María y José

27 de diciembre 2015

VIDA FAMILIAR

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

La vida familiar es sagrada, pero no faltan las dificultades. Este puede ser el mensaje más importante que encontramos en las lecturas de hoy. Si Jesús, María y José pueden tropezar de vez en cuando —desconectarse— entonces no nos debe sorprender cuando eso mismo nos ocurre a nosotros también. Y los padres dondequiera que estén (hijos también) pueden ver el parecido —y hasta consolarse— con el relato bíblico que habla de María y José después de que Jesús les explica por qué se quedó atrás en el templo. Escucharon sus palabras, nos dice Lucas, “pero ellos no comprendieron lo que les acababa de decir” (Lucas 2:50). ¡Amén! Sin embargo, Jesús sí se va con ellos para la casa, y continúa creciendo bajo su cuidado.

El primer domingo después de la Navidad celebramos la fiesta de la Sagrada Familia. Los latinos somos un pueblo muy unido en familia. Para nosotros es más que un pequeño grupo compuesto de padre, madre, hijos e hijas. La familia para nosotros los latinos es un conjunto grande de abuelos, abuelas, tíos, tías, primos, primas, compadres, comadres, suegros, suegras y otros más además del padre, la madre y los hijos. Para los latinos una fiesta que celebra la familia de Jesús es la cosa más natural del mundo.

Extrañamente esta fiesta no es muy antigua. En realidad es una celebración que data de comienzos de la época moderna en el siglo XVII. Antes de estas fechas la familia de Jesús casi siempre era entendida como compuesta por Jesús, María y Ana (la madre de María). Se daba por hecho que José estaba por allí. Pero en el siglo XVII muchos perdieron sus padres pues tenían que ir a las fábricas a trabajar. Por eso el magisterio instituyó la conmemoración de la Sagrada Familia de Jesús, María y José para recordar a los padres cristianos su deber ante sus hijos y su esposa.

LECTURAS DE HOY

Primera lectura—Ana entregó su hijo Samuel al Señor, dejándolo en el templo de Siló: “Toda su vida, él está cedido a Yavé” (1 Samuel 1:20-22, 24-28) o Sirácide 3:2-6, 12-14.

Salmo — Señor, dichosos los que viven en tu casa (Salmo 84 [83]) o Salmo 128(127).

Segunda lectura—Somos hijos de Dios cuando creemos en el nombre de su Hijo, Jesucristo, y nos amamos mutuamente como él nos ordenó (1 Juan 3:1-2, 21-24) o Colosenses 3:12-21 [12-17].

Evangelio—José y María encuentran a Jesús perdido en el templo en medio de los maestros, escuchando y

LA SAGRADA FAMILIA

Hoy las sagradas Escrituras destacan varios temas como parte integral de la fiesta. En la familia de Abraham somos herederos de la Alianza que Dios quiso forjar con el pueblo de Israel. En la tradición de los hombres y mujeres de fe, la relación de padres a hijos se convierte en un signo de paz y de reconciliación donde Dios se hace presente. Y en la relación de fieles e Iglesia, la comunidad celebra por el bautismo la Nueva Alianza en el amor incondicional de aquel que quiso nacer de la Virgen Madre para llevar a acabo la voluntad del Padre y, así, entregar su vida por toda la humanidad. Los cantos escogidos y los textos preparados para apoyar la palabra proclamada hoy deben reconocer el valor de la vida familiar y hacer un llamado general a que cada familia viva los valores que nos revela la propia Sagrada Familia de Nazaret.

SSNTA MARIA, MADRE DE DIOS

Enero 1ro. El tema de la Navidad se entrelaza con la solemnidad de Santa María, Madre de Dios. Primer día del año nuevo. El tono alegre de la fiesta reconoce la maternidad de María como el don por la cual el Salvador pudo encontrar acogida en nuestra historia. Por él hemos sido rescatados de la ley para ser hijos adoptivos del amor del Padre. El Evangelio nos hace recordar el encuentro de los pastores con la Sagrada Familia y el jubilo intenso que sintieron ante ese momento especial. En este primer día del año, Dios nos llama a vivir la fe de tal manera que otros vean en la alegría que compartimos un signo evidente de nuestro encuentro con Jesús. Ahora nos podemos reunir y preguntar: Cuáles han sido nuestros logros y nuestros desafíos en el año que acabamos de despedir? ¿De qué manera vamos a participar en la Nueva Evangelización durante este año nuevo
